

Pinot Blanc Aperitif 2017

The Pinot Blanc is an old, traditional white wine grape and well known in almost every notable wine growing region on earth. Everywhere the Pinot Blanc is much renowned and developed in many variations. Picking the grapes when they are already overripe and fermenting all their sugar afterwards gives rise to powerful wines with lots of smoothness, substance and lasting potential.

Tasting notes

This Pinot Blanc Aperitif appears smooth and full bodied. It offers a typical Pinot Blanc nose while being strong and long lasting on the palate. Ageing potential!

Food suggestion

A wine best suited as an aperitif that prepares your palate for upcoming treats.

Ageing potential

More than 10 years.

Details

Drinking Temperature: 12° C, Alcohol Content: 14.5 %vol, Sugar Content: 1 g/L, Acidity: 4.7 g/L

AT-BIO-402

